Italian Summer School 2026
(18th edition)

Dear Parents,

Also this year the Municipality of Ferrara,the Viale K Onlus Association,the Cidas Cooperative,the Il Germoglio Cooperative,in collaboration with the Govoni Comprehensive Institute and other local bodies organize the Italian Summer School which offers Italian courses for children and teenagers of foreign origin from 7 to 14 years old recently arrived in Italy- who need to learn and to strengthen their language skills. Furthermore, in collaboration with the CPIA of Ferrara, the summer school offers an Italian course for parents.

The Italian Summer School includes 6 weeks of activities, from July 6th to August 13th 2026.

All courses will be held at the Leopardi Primary School in Via Boccaccio 4, Ferrara

Classes can accommodate a maximum of 18 students.

Students must have already attended at least the first year of school in their country of origin or in Italy and therefore already know how to read and write.
